Inclusive teaching for every child

Primary schools in the North East are invited to take part in an independent evaluation of Chatta, from 26 January to 21 July 2027.

LAUNCH EVENT

Tuesday 26 January 2027 · 9:00 – 12:30 · Bunny Hill Centre, Sunderland

Especially valuable for schools looking to develop inclusive whole-class teaching, aiming high for all pupils while removing barriers to learning and closing gaps in attainment for pupils from disadvantaged backgrounds.

Free for primary schools

- Participation in the evaluation
- Training
- Support visits
- Resources
- A visit from Chatta's founder, Chris Williams, so you can see the impact live

Who should come

Two people from your school: a senior leader (inclusion, teaching and learning, SEND or literacy) and one colleague who will lead Chatta in school. More teachers can take part in the evaluation than attend the launch.

Open to North East primary schools.

An independent evaluation

Led by Dr Emma Vardy and Professor Clare Wood of Nottingham Trent University, from 26 January to 21 July 2027. Participation, training, support visits and resources are free, and every school receives a visit from Chatta's founder, Chris Williams.

Supported by the SHINE Trust

SHINE funds innovative programmes that improve educational outcomes for children in areas of deprivation in the North of England. Its vision is that no child from a low-income background faces barriers to learning. Chatta shares that aim.

About Chatta

A whole-class teaching approach built on live modelling and audio-visual scaffolding. It supports all pupils, including those who are new to English. Recognised as a HundrED Global Innovation three years running.
